

Wah Kwong won the Hong Kong Shipowner of the Year, 3rd time in 4 years

Nearly 300 members of Hong Kong's maritime industry gathered at the Mission to Seafarers 6th Annual Maritime Charity Dinner in Hong Kong on Thursday 15th November 2018 to raise money for the Mission's work with Seafarers in Hong Kong and witness the presentation of the Hong Kong Seafarers Awards. Each year the Mission surveys seafarers on all Hong Kong flagged vessels and those owned or managed out of Hong Kong and presents an award to the most respected Hong Kong Ship Manager and Ship Owner as voted for by the crews on board. 2018 saw a record number of respondents and Wah Kwong were honored to win the Hong Kong Shipowner of the Year award for the third time in four years. William Fairclough, Chief Commercial Officer of Wah Kwong accepted the award on behalf of the company.
